"Hell on earth and in the heart of the earth!"

Hell on earth as we know it is the condition of earthly life that we experience because of our wickedness, as a consequence of the misuse of the total freedom of thought and action received from God.
For some people, a positive aspect of this earthly life condition is that it will end with the death of our body.
Hell in the heart of the earth, on the other hand, apart from being a totally infernal place, is also a state of eternal existence. This is after God's judgement of all evil Spirits of Angels and men, as a consequence of their rebellion against God, and of not submitting to the sovereignty of the Creator Spirit of the Lord.
There is no positive aspect in this condition of hellish life in the heart of the earth. The Spirits imprisoned in this place will live not in the presence of God, but of fire and evil Spirits or demons, who will surely act wickedly among themselves, tormenting one another and even lashing out at the souls of damned men, having nothing else to do. These Spirits will also live in utter darkness, for we know that sunlight cannot enter the heart of the earth, to say nothing of the torment they will suffer because of the fire in this place.
The fact that hell is located in the heart of the earth can be understood both from the presence of molten magma within the planet, and from quotations from the Holy Scripture that give us confirmation of this.
One such quotation is the following statement by Jesus:

(He said to them, “Why do they say that the Christ is David’s son? David himself says in the book of Psalms, ‘The Lord said to my Lord, “Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet.’”) Luke 20 : 41

In this quotation, the Lord God addresses the Lord Jesus, telling Him that He will make His enemies His footstool and thus under His feet, to be eternally subject to Him. The enemies of Jesus are all those who will be judged and condemned to eternal damnation in the place of hell. The footstool the Lord mentions is the earth on which we live, on which the Lord Jesus has set His feet, and Jesus being the 'Temple of the living God', as the living man on earth and the Son of God, then His feet are the feet of God, which have walked and stood on this earth as his footstool. One of the quotations in the Holy Bible that reveal to us the fact that the earth is the footstool for the Lord's feet is the following statement of God made to the prophet Isaiah:

(Thus says the Lord: ‘the heavens are my throne and the earth is my footstool. What house could you build for me? What is to be my resting place? All these things were made by me, and so all these things are mine,’- says the Lord). Isaiah 66:1

Indeed, God Himself has confirmed that the earth is the footstool for the Lord's feet by becoming incarnate in Jesus, living in His body and placing His feet upon it. Another quotation from the Holy Scripture that confirms to us that the earth is the footstool for God's feet is the following statement by the Lord Jesus, and we know that in Jesus lives the truthful Spirit of God the Father:

(“Again you have heard that it was said to the ancient ones, ‘You shall not make false vows, but shall perform to the Lord your vows,’ but I tell you, don’t swear at all: neither by heaven, for it is the throne of God; nor by the earth, for it is the footstool of his feet; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King.) Matthew 5 : 33

Jesus, while preaching as the Son of God, rebuked several cities for not converting and by referring to the city of Capernaum He made us understand that its fate would be the 'underworld', that is, the hellish place within the earth, which is not visible to our eyes.
The words of Jesus are as follows:

(“Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you. You, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be brought down to Hades. Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me. Whoever rejects me rejects him who sent me.”) Luke 10 : 13

From the words of Jesus, the ascent to heaven consists of God's positive judgement of that city, thus its elevation and eternal salvation; the lowering to hell consists of God's negative judgement of the city and its eternal damnation in the hellish place below its feet. And we know that the earth is surrounded by the heavens, so the underworld must necessarily be within the earth.
Reading the vision of Revelation received by John, we can refer to some passages of the Scripture that also make us realise the presence in the heart of the earth of a place of hellish torment, also called the Abyss.
It is destined for the devil or Satan, for all the evil Angels like him, and for all the spirits of men who will be judged to be evil or accursed by God, as God has prophesied also through His Son Jesus.
A part of Revelation that can serve as a reference is the following:

(The fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from the sky which had fallen to the earth. The key to the pit of the abyss was given to him. He opened the pit of the abyss, and smoke went up out of the pit, like the smoke from a burning furnace. The sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke from the pit. Then out of the smoke came locusts on the earth, and power was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have power. They were told that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only those people who don’t have God’s seal on their foreheads. They were given power, not to kill them, but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it strikes a person. In those days people will seek death, and will in no way find it. They will desire to die, and death will flee from them.) Revelation 9 : 1

This part of John's apocalyptic vision makes us realise that shortly before the day of God's judgement, the evil Spirits living in the heart of the earth, called the Abyss, will be released and will come out with God's permission to torment some of mankind. The star that fell from heaven to earth should be an Angel of light, with the task of bringing the demons out of the Abyss. The smoke coming out of the Abyss is the smoke of Satan and the multitude of evil Spirits, as seen by Padre Pio of Pietrelcina on the occasions when he was tormented by the devil and by me on a couple of occasions, even smelling his characteristic odour. The fact that the smoke of demons, that is, that evil Spirits will come out of the earth, is also confirmed by the fact that they will spread over it to torment men to such an extent that they desire death.
Another part of the vision of the Apocalypse of John in which the smoke of Satan is mentioned is the following:

(I saw an angel flying in mid heaven, having an eternal Good News to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth—to every nation, tribe, language, and people. He said with a loud voice, “Fear the Lord, and give him glory, for the hour of his judgment has come. Worship him who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and the springs of waters!” Another, a second angel, followed, saying, “Babylon the great has fallen, which has made all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality.” Another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a great voice, “If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is prepared unmixed in the cup of his anger. He will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. The smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. They have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name. Here is the perseverance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus.”) Revelation 14 : 6

This part of the Scripture confirms the rising of the smoke that originates from the torment of all the evil Spirits in hell. This will happen in eternity, because even the evil spirits of Angels and men possess an immortal life, but one destined for endless torment.
The following part of Revelation confirms the existence of the so-called Abyss. This is the interior of the earth, a dark and even hellish place where evil Spirits will be imprisoned, so that they will no longer tempt men on earth.

(I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. He seized the dragon, the old serpent, who is the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole inhabited earth, and bound him for a thousand years, and cast him into the abyss, and shut it and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more until the thousand years were finished. After this, he must be freed for a short time.) Revelation 20 : 1

The next part of Revelation confirms the presence of hellfire in the heart of the earth.
Although the Scripture quoted does not specify where this fire is, we already know this.
The most important thing is to reflect on all the quotations, believing in what we read, demonstrating our faith in the Word of the Lord and his revelation for our eternal salvation.

(And after the thousand years, Satan will be released from his prison and he will come out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war, whose number is as the sand of the sea. They went up over the width of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city. Fire came down out of heaven from God and devoured them. The devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet are also. They will be tormented day and night forever and ever.) Revelation 20 : 7
