‘Sound of the trumpets of the Apocalypse heard from heaven!’
(Audio attached)

The trumpets of the Apocalypse are a central concept in the Bible's prophetic book of Revelation.
They represent a series of catastrophes that will strike the earth before the manifestation of the Lord Jesus Christ from Heaven. The sounding of the trumpets triggers events such as warnings, plagues and destruction, marking history in preparation for the second coming of the Son of God.

(Warning and judgement)

The sounding of the trumpets is a warning to humankind of the imminent Divine judgement, signalling, when the first Angel sounds the trumpet, the beginning of catastrophic events that will lead to the destruction of a third of the earth, water and living beings, clearly confirming the end time.

(Divine intervention)

The trumpets also represent Divine intervention in history, in answer to the prayers of His people and as a response to their injustice, but also the fulfilment of God's will with the fulfilment of His prophecies.

(Preparation for the Kingdom of Jesus Christ)

The trumpets and the ensuing catastrophes are seen as a preparation by God and mankind for the establishment of Our Lord's Kingdom of peace.
This will come about by the removal from our presence of the devil and his servant Angels, who will be imprisoned in the Abyss of the Earth for a thousand years, but also by the extermination of all wicked men who have not wanted to do God's will, transgressing his commandments and disrespecting his Lordship and sovereignty.
The trumpets according to the book of Revelation are sounded by seven Angels, who blow seven trumpets each sounding its trumpet and heralding the catastrophes that follow.
Each trumpet has a specific sound and effect that leads to a different destructive event, such as storms, natural disasters and even death.
The sounding of the trumpets is a call to action, it is a call to humanity to choose repentance and to prepare for the establishment of the new Kingdom of eternal peace for all who will be saved.
The sounding of the trumpets in Revelation is therefore a powerful religious symbol representing Divine judgement, heavenly intervention, and preparation for the final age.

This is followed by a video with the sound of the trumpets of the Apocalypse recognised as such and coming from heaven:

Name of the video: (Vuelven a escucharse las trompetas del Apocalipsis, ahora en Canadá e Indonesia)
Video duration: (4.31 minutes)
Duration of the trumpet blast: (Almost three minutes)

To watch the video, just click on the relevant link, but rather than watching it, one should listen to it, also because the video is impure in the eyes of the Lord because of the image.

(Characteristics of the recorded sound)

It is a clear and obvious trumpet blast, recognised by many listeners as the sound of a trumpet.
This obvious trumpet sound is intended to strike fear into men in order to induce them to repent, choosing to no longer serve Satan but the Lord our God who has given us life to live for ever.
This undoubtedly mysterious sound refers to the mystery of God and His marvellous Kingdom, and this too is a Divine message from the Angel at the will of the Lord.

The initial part of the trumpet sound, a little less than a minute and a half into the video, is comparable to the opening of the door of a large house that seems empty and uninhabited: you can hear the echo and the creaking due to rust, as if it had not been opened for a long time.
The door that opens represents the gate to heaven, to enter the Kingdom of God, for those who will be judged worthy of eternal life in the peace of the Lord. The opening of the door also represents the opening of the book of the life of the Lamb of God, the Lord Jesus and his seals, which we find in chapter no. 5 of the Book of Revelation.
The great house represents the great Kingdom of God, which we can only define as such according to our own knowledge, without considering what we do not yet know about the universe. The fact that it seems empty and uninhabited is because the judgement of men has not yet taken place, which is when the Lord will bring us in through that door to dwell in His House or Kingdom forever. The rust and creaking make us realise that the great house was built a long time ago, for we know that the Kingdom of God or Paradise of God, that is to say, the universe, was created several millennia ago.

In the final part of the video, on the other hand, one can clearly hear a continuous, prolonged trumpet sound for about thirty seconds, as if the Angel wanted to communicate a final message to us by playing with all his strength and with all the breath at his disposal, in fact the sound ends right here.
In these last seconds of the trumpet blast the listener can sense the Angel's anger at what the Lord wants to be accomplished on the entire face of the earth because of the evil conduct of men.
The Angel's blowing of the trumpet represents the blowing of the Holy Spirit, as on the day of Pentecost in the presence of Jesus' disciples. The part referring to the Holy Gospel is as follows:

(Now when the day of Pentecost had come, they were all with one accord in one place. Suddenly there came from the sky a sound like the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. Tongues like fire appeared and were distributed to them, and one sat on each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other languages, as the Spirit gave them the ability to speak.) Acts of the Apostles 2 : 1

The Angel's blowing in anger also refers to the wind held by the four Angels at the four corners of the earth before carrying out their devastation. This prophecy is found at the beginning of chapter 7 of Revelation and can be read from the menu by clicking on ‘The Destroying Angels!'.
A part of the Holy Gospel of Jesus prophesying the use of the trumpet by the Angels in heaven at the end of time is this:

(“But immediately after the suffering of those days, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken; and then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky. Then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky with power and great glory. He will send out his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together his chosen ones from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other.) Matthew 24 : 29

The trumpet sound heard from heaven in these latter times can be considered confirmation of the sound heard by the Israelites at the time of the exodus, in the presence of Moses and God on Mount Sinai, more than 3,000 years ago.
The reference part of the book of Exodus is as follows:

(On the third day, when it was morning, there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain, and the sound of an exceedingly loud trumpet; and all the people who were in the camp trembled. Moses led the people out of the camp to meet God; and they stood at the lower part of the mountain. All of Mount Sinai smoked, because Yahweh descended on it in fire; and its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked greatly. When the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him by a voice.) Exodus 19 : 16

In this testimony handed down by Moses, the sound of the horn or trumpet ‘grew louder and louder’, very similar to the sound heard and recorded in the final part of the attached video.
The trumpet sound heard from heaven in the time of Moses as well as in the present time certainly means two things:

(1)

The manifestation of God the Father and his will on earth in the presence of his prophet Moses, through the Tablets of the Law delivered through him to the people of Israel, as well as the manifestation of the Holy Spirit, i.e. of God and his will in the present time through this site, regarding what the Lord demands of us, always in observance of his commandments, for the eternal salvation of souls.

(2)

The deliverance of the people of Israel from slavery in Egypt, like the final deliverance from slavery to Satan, the devil, at the end of time, for all those who have ever done God's will or repented in fear of Him, and who have thus been judged worthy of eternal life in the peace of His magnificent Kingdom.
