Worship generally means the adoration of God, and therefore, our worship, as a form of adoration, cannot be directed at a human being born of union between a man and a woman, even if this person has been declared a saint.
Veneration is to be addressed to the Divine Spirit of God, our Creator, and not to his creatures.
Venerating a human being, even if he has been judged a saint and has performed many miracles in his life, is wrong, also because he may be an evildoer.
We know that in our lives we all live under the temptation of the devil and it is easy for us to act contrary to God's will, giving heed to the devil and doing evil.
The following statement of the Lord Jesus makes us understand this:

(Many will tell me in that day, ‘Lord, Lord, didn’t we prophesy in your name, in your name cast out demons, and in your name do many mighty works?’ Then I will tell them, ‘I never knew you. Depart from me, you who work iniquity.’) Matthew 7 : 22

When the Lord says 'I never knew you', it is as if He were saying 'You have never known me' because if the Lord sees that our adoration, veneration or worship is directed at idols and not at his Divine Holy Spirit, this means that we are not recognising His glory, we are refusing to adore Him in Spirit and truth, as the Lord Jesus commanded us to do. In this case, the many wonders performed by the so called 'evildoers' are done by the power of Satan, who acts by God's permission to put our faith to the test.
The evildoers are also called 'ungodly'; a quotation from the Holy Scripture in which it is prophesied that the devil will perform his deceitful miracles is as follows:

(even he whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, and with all deception of wickedness for those who are being lost, because they didn’t receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. Because of this, God sends them a powerful delusion, that they should believe a lie, that they all might be judged who didn’t believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.) 2 Thessalonians 2 : 9

The Lord has given us one of his confirmations of this iniquity that we practise at the time of the prophet Jeremiah, by sending misfortune from heaven upon the inhabitants of the cities of Judah and Jerusalem, as we read in the following portion of Holy Scripture:

(“Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘You have seen all the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, and on all the cities of Judah. Behold, today they are a desolation, and no man dwells in them, because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, to serve other gods that they didn’t know, neither they, nor you, nor your fathers. However I sent to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, “Oh, don’t do this abominable thing that I hate.” But they didn’t listen and didn’t incline their ear. They didn’t turn from their wickedness, to stop burning incense to other gods.) Jeremiah 44 : 2

By always acting in the same way, it is normal that the Lord Jesus will judge us as workers of iniquity.

The following quotation from the Gospel makes us realise that worship is linked to adoration, which we must address only to the Spirit of God:

(Again, the devil took him to an exceedingly high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. He said to him, “I will give you all of these things, if you will fall down and worship me.” Then Jesus said to him, “Get behind me, Satan! For it is written, ‘You shall worship the Lord your God, and you shall serve him only.”) Matthew 4 : 8

Another quote from the Bible that makes us realise that our worship should be directed to God alone is that of John's vision in Revelation:

(Now I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. When I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who had shown me these things. He said to me, “You must not do that! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers, the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God.”) Revelation 22 : 8

Therefore, if an Angel has refused adoration by a man, even though an Angel is superior to man, all the more reason why a human being cannot be worthy of our adoration or manifestation of veneration. Only the man Jesus is worthy of our adoration, since He is the Son of God, born not of union between man and woman, but by the power of God the Father, making him of a Divine nature.
When we want to venerate a man judged to be holy, we make a material image of that man with our own hands, be it beautiful or ugly, truthful or false, in order to venerate and adore an idol instead of God, perhaps even offering incense to the idol, offending the glory of God and provoking the Lord's jealousy to wrath. God, through the prophet Isaiah, said:

(“I am Yahweh. That is my name. I will not give my glory to another, nor my praise to engraved images.) Isaiah 42 : 8

This evil behaviour of ours, which is the sin of idolatry, is severely condemned by God the Father for transgressing the second commandment of the Law that He gave to Moses.

The commandment transgressed is the following:

(“You shall not make for yourselves an idol, nor any image of anything that is in the heavens above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: you shall not bow yourself down to them, nor serve them, for I, Yahweh your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, on the third and on the fourth generation of those who hate me, and showing loving kindness to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.) Exodus 20 : 4

The eternal condemnation for idolaters, on the other hand, is as follows:

(But for the cowardly, unbelieving, sinners, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their part is in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death.”) Revelation 21 : 8

Trusting in an idol also means manifesting disbelief regarding the existence of the Spirit of God, denying His glory, His Lordship, and the truth that belongs to Him, i.e. the Holy Scripture, and thus facing eternal condemnation. The following quotation from the Gospel makes us realise this:

(Afterward he was revealed to the eleven themselves as they sat at the table; and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they didn’t believe those who had seen him after he had risen. He said to them, “Go into all the world and preach the Good News to the whole creation.
He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who disbelieves will be condemned.) Mark 16 : 14

When we worship an idol, it does not mean that we are worshipping the man represented by the idol, but Satan, because the idol is a work done by the will of the devil, opposing the will of the Lord, to make us transgress the second commandment of God mentioned above, provoking the Lord to anger and to lead us to eternal damnation.
When we worship an idol, we are in communion neither with the represented saint nor with the Lord, but with the devil, because by serving an idol we are disobeying God, doing the devil's will, and therefore we are serving Satan and consequently we are in communion with him.

It's clear that the Lord will punish the idolaters with eternal damnation for serving Satan and not their God. The veneration of saints, or rather idols, therefore, is an idolatrous practice in the service of the devil, to lead man away from the truth and true worship of God and into eternal damnation.

You should also read the document 'Keeping God's commandments.pdf'.

The Messenger of God